

INDEX OF ARTICLES AND REVIEWS PUBLISHED IN THE IQBAL REVIEW (1960—1983)

Afzal Haq Qarshi

The Iqbal Review is a quarterly journal published alternately in English and Urdu. Started in April 1960, it publishes research studies on the life, poetry and thought of Iqbal. Articles relating to Iqbal's ideas on politics, ethics, education, history, economics, philosophy, sociology, psychology, literature, art, comparative religion, Islamics, etc, are also areas of special interest to the Journal. In fact all subjects in which Iqbal was interested fall within its scope.

In the last twenty-three years some eminent scholars have been associated with this journal, Dr. M. Rafiuddin (? - 1969) was its first editor. In July 1965 he was succeeded by Bashir Ahmad Dar (1908-1979). In 1971 an editorial board was set up. Syed Abdul Wahid was made the Chairman of the Board while Hadi Husain, Khwaja Ashkar Husain and Syed Ali Ashraf were the members. In July 1971 the Board was expanded and Manzoor Ahmad, Kazi Abdul Kadir and Hasan Murad Qasim were also included in its panel of editors. After a year, that is, in July 1972, the editorial board was reconstituted and Hadi Husain, Nazir Ahmad and Khwaja Ashkar Husain were appointed its members. The issues from October 1973 to April 1976 of the Journal do not bear the names of the members of the editorial board. The issues from July 1976 to October 1977 were published under the supervision of Sufi Ghulam Mustafa Tabassum (1899-1978), who was the Chairman of the editorial board during this period. In January 1978 the Board was reconstituted. Dr. Muhammad Baqir was made the Chairman of the Board and Dr. Abdus Salam Khurshid, Professor M. Saeed Sheikh and Professor Khwaja Ghulam Sadiq were appointed its members while Dr. M. Moizuddin was made the editor of the Journal the issues from July 1982 to April 1983 were edited by Dr. Waheed Qureshi.
